

Tallest Tower Engineering Challenge #1

The Objectives of the Challenge were to:

- Learn about structural engineering.
- Learn about teamwork and problem solving.
- Learn about engineering design and redesign.

There were sixteen groups or teams that competed. Each group planned, designed, constructed and tested their towers. The competition was spirited and four teams earned prizes. The winners ranged from 22 inches to 29 inches tall.

