

BUSINESS | ENGINEERING | MEDIA | MEDICINE

This experiential learning program adds professional resources and experiences to our robust curriculum. While it is not designed for specialization, it creates cohesive pathways of academic and real-world exploration for students with curiosities in various disciplines.

Career Path of Study	Freshman Requirements	Upperclassman Requirements
Business-Entrepreneurship	Entrepreneurship Forum Club, Attendance at Career Speaker Lectures	Business & Entrepreneurship Courses, Business Ethics, Social Justice Seminar, Entrepreneurship Forum Club, Internship Project
Engineering	Engineering Club, Attendance at Career Speaker Lectures	Engineering Courses, Ethics in Engineering, Engineering Club, Internship Project
Media/Film	Literary, Fine Arts and Social Media Clubs	Media and Communication Courses and Clubs, and Associated Internship Projects
Medicine	Attendance at Career Speaker Lectures	Honors Biology & Chemistry, Human and Veterinary Anatomy, Bioethics, Social Justice Seminar, Healthcare Spirituality Course, Internship Project

These courses will fit into your normal college prep schedule following your freshman year.

BENEDICTINE'S COLLEGE PREP COURSE OF STUDY

- ▶ 4 years of Theology
- ▶ 4 years of English Language Arts
- ▶ 1 semester of Health
- ▶ 4 years of Mathematics
- ▶ 1 year of Physical Education
- ▶ 3 years of Lab Science + 1 year of Pre-Lab Science
- ▶ 3 years of Social studies including Economics and Financial Literacy
- ▶ 2 years of a World Language
- ▶ 1 year of Fine Arts
- ▶ 5 classes of Electives that could include our Ben-x Curriculum

COLLEGES ACCEPTANCE

We take pride in developing young men in mind, body and spirit.

We're dedicated to college admissions. Here are just some of the institutions accepting Benedictine graduates:

