

A 1,500 year tradition in preparing young men for life

Directed Study Hall Tutor - Benedictine High School

Benedictine High School is seeking a qualified candidate to join its staff for the 2023-24 school year.

About Benedictine High School

We are a Catholic School in the tradition of St. Benedict, and a diverse community that forms leaders. We live the Rule of St. Benedict and live out the hallmarks of a Benedictine education and community. Through Ora et Labora, prayer and work, we form our young men into Men of Benedictine, to join in the great brotherhood and learn how to be great, not just for others, but for themselves as well.

Directed Study Hall Tutor

The Directed Study Hall Tutor is responsible for the growth of students in support of the Benedictine High School mission of forming our young men into Men of Benedictine through the Rule of St. Benedict and Ora et Labora.

The Directed Study Hall Tutor is responsible for the following results:

- Identifies student learning needs.
- Collaborating with faculty and Counseling Department to assist students with assignments, projects, and other academic tasks in order to grow in executive functioning skills as well as academically.
- Working with students to improve study skills and to reinforce concepts learned in the classroom.

The ideal candidate will have the follow qualifications:

- Loves Benedictine and loves our students while knowing the challenge of the work we do.
- Open to feedback and growth - exhibits humility.
- Believes in our hallmark of community and stability and collaborates with teachers and administrative staff to solve problems.
- Can work with families to engage them as partners in forming their sons into Men of Benedictine.
- Has a passion for developing high school age students and believes that all students can learn and grow.

benedictine

A 1,500 year tradition in preparing young men for life

- Believes that we do not do things for students that they can do for themselves and helps foster that mindset in the student body and greater Benedictine Community.
- Helps us celebrate our diverse student body, one of our greatest strengths and a part of who we are.
- Demonstrates a willingness to guide students consistent with the teachings of St. Benedict.
- Willing to be out there and visible on the frontlines and do the little things. Can handle stressful situations.
- Able to balance being empathetic and having tough love.
- Self-starter - can direct own work.
- Can lead vision for forming guys into MOB.
- Adaptable.
- Believes in the mission, vision and values of Benedictine.
- Is proactive and can perceive problems before they emerge.
- Willing to address things immediately and take action.

To Apply: Please submit a cover letter and resume to fanelli@cbhs.edu